Gene,

The invoice appears to be for 75% of the entire project cost. If you haven't already paid the first invoice, it is reasonable to pay this one. If the first invoice was paid and just not noted by Fab Tech, then only the difference should be paid on this invoice.

Thanks

Don

Don, please review this invoice and let me know if it meets the guidelines. I guess since we haven't paid anything yet, 75% is probably accurate.

Thanks, gene
