WHEREAS, if passed, the practical result would require a tax increase in state income, oil and gas or sales tax or all existing state budgets would be compromised in favor of common education; and

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Clinton derives substantial financial resources for infrastructure, and capital improvements from the development programs of the Oklahoma Department of Commerce, Oklahoma Department of Transportation, Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Oklahoma Water Resources Board, Oklahoma Aeronautics Commission, Oklahoma Department of Emergency Management; and operational support from the Oklahoma Bureau of Investigation, Oklahoma Department of Public Safety, Oklahoma Insurance Department, Oklahoma Tax Commission, and the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality; all of which, and many more, would have their budgets adversely affected, and
